KEYNOTE: Big Picture Parenting

ANN DOUGLAS 8:30AM - 9:30AM

In this thought-provoking keynote presentation, parenting author Ann Douglas will discuss the advantages of taking a big-picture approach to parenting (parenting with your hopes and dreams for your children and your family in mind). She will discuss the importance of tuning into your children's needs, being mindful of your parenting decisions, building relationships with other parents, and practicing self-care. Expect a compelling mix of practical advice and lively anecdotes from this popular and engaging speaker.

CLOSING: The Power of Your Inspiration and Influence

Monique Howat 3:45PM - 4:30PM

You have an ability that is highly persuasive. It is powerful enough to spark ambition, motivation and drive in those around you. Likely, it has already been used on you: perhaps by a teacher, partner, parent when you were a child or a co-worker. Inspiration and Influence may appear in camouflage through words, actions, ideas or believing in someone before they prove or believe in themselves. It commonly enters our lives when we least expect it and injects the fortunate individual with a fresh, fierce attitude that says, I will make it happen! This humorous, yet thought-provoking speaker, defines inspiration and influence in a way that most people have never reflected upon. You will discover the potent effect of a gift that lies within all of us, known as Inspiration and Influence. Prepare to be engaged!
